CONVERGENCE REENTRY READY LEADERS UNVEIL BOLD, COMPREHENSIVE PLAN TO PREPARE PEOPLE TO SUCCESSFULLY RETURN HOME FROM PRISON AND LEAD MORE PRODUCTIVE, HEALTHIER LIVES

Washington, DC – Convergence Center for Policy Resolution invites you to attend a briefing on a transformative plan designed to improve reentry success for the hundreds of thousands of individuals returning home from incarceration. The plan calls for coordination at the highest level across the multiple systems that serve incarcerated and formerly incarcerated individuals. By focusing on what happens during incarceration and immediately afterward, it addresses a critical, yet often overlooked, aspect of criminal justice reform.

WHAT:

Each person returns home with a unique set of needs and requires support to successfully reintegrate back into the community. Speakers will describe breakthrough strategies to address the education, employability, physical and mental health, housing, and family support concerns of currently and formerly incarcerated individuals. They will call on state and local leaders and practitioners to adopt the innovative strategies and programs described in the report.

Featured Speaker

Senator Tim Kaine (D-VA)
